87. If the sum due on account of any rate, rent, or tax from the owner of any house, building, or land, remains unpaid, after notice of demand has been duly served, the President may demand the account from the occupier for the time being of such house, building, or land, and on non-payment thereof, may recover the same by distress and sale of any movable property found on the premises; and in such case, the occupier may deduct from the next and following payments of his rent the amount which may be so paid by or recovered from him; provided that no arrear of rate, rent, or tax which has remained due from the owner of any house, building, or land for more than one year shall be so recovered from the occupier thereof.

Rate due from owner may be recovered from occupier and deducted by him from his rent.
